When I landed in my parachute a Frenchman helped me to escape. I was taken to an old barn and given some clothes. There I was left until Sunday. I was then taken by a woman who spoke English, where I remained at her house for 4 days. From there I went to Longville and stayed there for about a month and a half. I was then told that it was practically impossible to get to England. I went back to the people who could speak English and remained there until the place was over run by the English.
